

SPOFFORTH WEEKEND OF REMEMBRANCE

Friday 9 - Sunday 11 November

EXHIBITION – SPOFFORTH VILLAGE HALL.

An Exhibition in the Long Memorial Hall will commemorate the journeys taken by soldiers from our Parish with memorabilia from the First World War – many thanks to Margaret Power whose inspiration this is. She has completed all the research and made the part that Spofforth played in the Great War come to life. Young and old will find inspiration in this Exhibition – so everyone will be very welcome - we will learn so much about those who gave everything for us.

Refreshments available and Poppy Appeal Pop-up shop.

FRIDAY 9 NOVEMBER – 7.00 – 9.00 pm

SATURDAY & SUNDAY - 12 NOON – 4.00 p.m.

Sunday 11 November.

Service of Remembrance - Spofforth – 10.55 am

Sunday 11 November - Spofforth Castle Field

Joining communities throughout the country to Light a Beacon of Remembrance.

Music from the era - 6.30 until 7.15, kindly provided by Edmund Richman & Carol Hope.

- 6.55 The Last Post - Millie Hope.
The Names of the Fallen – Shirley Fawcett
- 7.00 Lighting of the Beacon - WWI Beacons of Light signify the light of peace that emerged from the darkness of war.
- 7.05 Tribute to the Millions - Freddie Heslop
A Cry for Peace Around the World - Paul Griffiths.

Followed by refreshments – thanks to Simon Giddings.